Seniors provide our community with a vast reservoir of experience and talent that enriches our community.

The Senior Citizens Police Academy:

- Gives seniors an opportunity for some new "hands-on" experience and an inside look at the operations of the Louisville Metro Police Department.
- Offers seniors an understanding of crime prevention strategies and technology and the opportunity to become crime prevention practitioners in our community

You will:

- Learn how to report crime.
- Learn to become proactive in crime prevention also understand crime trends, community problems, and how community policing addresses those problems.
- See a demonstration of the mounted patrol and canine unit.
- Become ambassadors for the Police Department.

- Learn how to assist the police department in educating the public about our mission, goal, and objectives by joining the Alumni association or volunteer program that will correspond to your talents, skills, and time available.
- Have access to and benefit from support services, and advocacy groups that are available to seniors to enhance your quality of life.
- Schedule visit at Metro Safe and learn about their functions.

The Seniors Citizens Police Academy will conclude with a graduation ceremony.

Successful graduates will take with them a diploma, a better understanding of the Louisville Metro Police Department, and the role of law enforcement officers in today's world.

Classes are held during the day for the convenience of seniors.

Wednesdays

March 14—April 18, 2012
